

Homework Assignment #03

Due Date: Monday 2/10/2014 at the start of class.

Assignment:

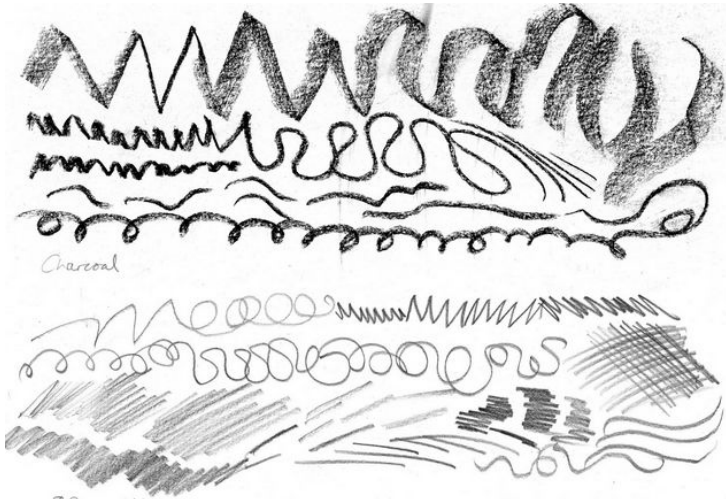

Using the rule of thirds make a charcoal line drawing of a scene from a dream you've had, including a background scene and at least one figure.

1) The subject of your drawing will be a dream that you have had. Please include at least one figure, either close up or far away.

2) Use the rule of thirds grid from class to position the elements(things) in your drawing:

3) Use a full range of line thicknesses, shapes and lengths.

4) Please make use of the entire page, no tiny objects in empty space (if that is your dream please pick another dream or lie about it!).
